

Funeral Catering in the picturesque Quayside setting

Thank you for considering the Quay. We understand and recognise that it may be difficult for you to accurately judge the number of guests who may accept your invitation, but to accommodate your gesture of hospitality we in turn will do our very best to ensure that adequate catering is provided for all additional guests unless we receive your specific instructions otherwise.

Drinks on Arrival

Our three function suites each have a fully stocked bar. On request, drinks can be provided on arrival. If preferred the bar can be open for guests to purchase their own drinks.

Please note that a bar is not available for numbers under 30 persons. You may have use of the suite for a maximum of 3 hours.
